Overview:

Please note that the content of this book primarily consists of articles available from Wikipedia or other free sources online. The Albanian Superliga, the highest level of association football in Albania, was founded in 1930 under the name Kategoria e Par . It its inception, six teams competed for the league title. In the 1998-1999 season it became the 'Kategoria superiore' with sixteen teams participating; in 1999-2000 that number was reduced to 14. Since the 2006-2007 season, 12 teams play in the Superliga. The First Division in Albanian football was founded in 1930. Like many countries though, a Premier Division has been founded since then and First Division is now the second level in Albanian football. This became the case in 1998. The league has been dominated by clubs from Albania's capital city, Tirana, with only fourteen titles going elsewhere in the country. Nine of those fourteen titles have gone to Vllaznia Shkod r.
