Review quote

"I thought at first it would be just a book on frosting for cupcakes, but it's actually so much more. The Dollop Book of Frosting is a perfect fit for anyone who enjoys baking!" --Simply Stacie

"Heather Saffer, winner of Food Network's Cupcake Wars and cupcake aficionado takes frosting to places you haven't dreamed of in her new cookbook. With each frosting recipe, Heather includes a finished dessert recipe so you have an idea of how to use the topping to its fullest potential. Your imagination is the only thing that will limit you!" --Frugal Antics of a Harried Homemaker

"Heather's recipes are original and perfect. Most of them are simple and every one I made came out delicious. I understand why she won 'Cupcake Wars.' The photographs in the book are beautiful and the fact that each recipe is illustrated is a definite plus. This book would be a great addition to anyone who loves frosting and wants to make it from scratch!" --The Maker Mom

"With over 45 delicious recipes The Dollop Book of Frosting is sure to fit the bill when you are looking for a glaze, icing or frosting. Hello! Genius. This one is definitely a keeper all year around! Enjoy." - SugarLoco

"A visually appealing book that's fun, bright, colorful and easy to read. I decided I should go way outside my personal box and try the cashew sriracha frosting.... I will gladly eat my words if they have this frosting on them.... This is a very fun book that inspired me to try some new things, and rethink some of my flavor combinations." - American Cake Decorating Magazine

"Cookies are great, but frosted cookies - now, those go the extra mile. These triple chocolate cookies from The Dollop Book of Frosting (Adams), by Heather 'Cupcakes' Saffer, are elevated with the addition of special brownie batter frosting. Serve a few to your grandchildren, and watch 'em go wild." - Grandparents.com
